

Fill-in-the-Blanks: History of South Frontenac Edition

1. Townships of Bedford, Portland, Loughborough and Storrington amalgamated in _____ to make up the Township of South Frontenac.
2. The Kingston-Pembroke Railroad was nicknamed the _____ & _____.
3. The Hartington School House was built in _____.
4. In Harrowsmith, Mr. Arthur Ward bought his first radio in _____. Mrs. Hazel Deyo had the first _____ in 1954.
5. In 1908, 1 pound of butter cost _____.
6. A _____ is a mill where farmers brought their wheat to be ground into flour.
7. Verona was once known as _____ because of all the saw and grist mills.
8. Originally named _____, and then _____, Battersea was founded in 1840 by Henry Van Luven. His family home still stands today, and is in operation as the Holiday Country Manor.
9. The above mentioned family home of Henry Van Luven often played host to this famous Canadian politician _____.
10. Verona, Ontario is named after Verona, _____.
11. The _____ was one of the only mills in Eastern Ontario that operated a saw, plane, veneer, and flour and grist mill all under one roof!
12. _____ was born in South Frontenac on July 23, 1900 and was the oldest living Canadian veteran from the First World War until his passing on February 18th, 2010 at the age of 109.
13. The _____ Crater stuck earth an estimated 550 million years ago and measured 90 metres across. Exploding into the ground at an estimated 55, 000 kilometres an hour, it has left a crater 2.35 kilometers in diameter and 30 metres deep. You can visit the plaque of the impact sight in _____.
14. The name of the post office was changed in _____, making Inverary an official hamlet.
15. The first school master in Sydenham was _____ in 1819.
16. When clearing the land for fields, settlers had the opportunity to make _____, a valuable commodity for selling or trading. It was made by collecting the ashes from burned hardwood trees and _____ them down until there was a residue of brownish ash. It could be used to dye wool, make soap, or as a _____.
17. While it was settled many years before as a mining community, Frontenac Provincial Park was established in _____ and is considered a 'hidden gem' for nature enthusiasts. The park is _____ km² and boasts approximately 160km of trails and _____ lakes.
18. Formally called Sloat's Landing or Loughboro, this village was named after _____, the first Governor of united Canada.