3. Approval of Minutes

Moved by Ron Sleeth

Seconded by Mark Schjerning

THAT the minutes of the South Frontenac Township Police Services Board meeting held November 23rd, 2011 regular meeting and November 23rd, 2011 annual meeting be accepted.

Carried.

4. Business Arising

Wayne Orr reported that he had discussions with Jim Morris, Communications Officer for the OPP with regard to the communications initiative and that it would be moving forward.

5. Staff Sergeant Report

Staff Sergeant advised that Pocket Dials remain an ongoing concern for the Detachment. They will proceed with the media campaign with respect to this.

The 2011 Annual Report of Crime Statistics was shared. The total break and entries were 122. These are actively being investigated. Three groups are being targeted and they are working with Kingston Police in this endeavour.

The clearance rate for the local Detachment is leading within the Region for the year. There was a request from the Board to routinely report on the Property Clearance rates.

Police were asked to follow up on the Petworth Bridge and they have indicated that a contact has been made.

6. Correspondence
